Keynote Description

Own Your Difference

In a volatile market, teams are juggling competing priorities, employees are battling "survivor guilt" and employee engagement is at an all time low. It's time to pivot. In this energizing keynote, discover the step-by-step strategies to unleash human potential and help your teams leverage their talents, strategically connect and cut through the noise to own their value more everyday at work.

Keynote learnings:

- Discover how to link your unique value to the organizational mission in order to elevate your voice, visibility and influence
- Identify how self-doubt and workplace myths are limiting your career growth and collective team impact
- Learn how to build advocates and elevate trust, collaboration and alignment across silos, teams and geographies
- Explore everyday ways to own and strengthen your leadership brand without feeling the pressure to be everything to everyone

Cigna

"The best & most valuable training I have ever attended on leadership. I found the content to be engaging, pragmatic. Thanks for inspiring us to own our voice, visibility and to take action!."

-Corrine McKeever, Vice President Clinical Operations
